Saturday, November 4

Lion's Den, 58 Willow Court, Sussex, NB

Professional Development Workshops (pre-registration required)

9:00–9:30 am	Pick up registration kit . Coffee and tea ready and waiting!
9:30 am–noon (includes coffee break on site: 10:30–11 am)	Option 1. Roger Moore: Finding Your Poem. Do you wait for the Muse to visit? Does your Muse appear on time? This interactive, energetic workshop offers ways in which you, as a writer, can actively seek your Muse – and hence your poem – instead of waiting for inspiration to arrive.
9:30 am–noon (includes coffee break on site: 10:30–11 am)	Option 2. Chuck Bowie: Weaving the Narrative. Workshop examines creating and developing narrative arcs, including how to incorporate multiple narrative arcs within a novel.
Noon–1:30 pm	Homemade lunch on site. Prepared by the Lion's Den kitchen.
1:30–4:00 pm	Option 1. Joe Powers: Crafting the Short Story. Workshop offers tips and insights on crafting the short story. It covers short story basics, such as character and scene development, story ideas, and good writing habits and practices.
1:30–4:00 pm	Option 2. Beth Powning: Garden Tour and Publishing Q & A. Join Beth for a tour of her Markhamville property and a discussion about publishing. WFNB provides transportation to and from Beth's house (returning to the Lion's Den). Limited to eight participants. First come, first served, so register early!

WFNB gratefully acknowledges the ongoing support of the New Brunswick Department of Tourism, Heritage and Culture; and the New Brunswick Department of Education.
