1. Do you have (i) a book to launch and/or (ii) something to read at the open mic session on Friday evening? Reading time: four minutes maximum. Space is limited. First come, first served, so please register early.

Book launch Yes No

Open mic Yes No

2. Mark which SATURDAY MORNING workshop you want to attend (9:30 am–noon).

Workshop 1. Roger Moore: Finding your Poem. Do you wait for the Muse to visit? Does your Muse appear on time? This interactive, energetic workshop offers ways in which you, as a writer, can actively seek your Muse – and hence your poem – instead of waiting for inspiration to arrive.

Workshop 2. Chuck Bowie: Weaving the Narrative. Workshop on creating and developing narrative arcs, including how to incorporate multiple narrative arcs within a novel.

3. Mark which SATURDAY AFTERNOON workshop you want to attend (1:30–4 pm).

Workshop 1. Joe Powers: Crafting the Short Story. Workshop offers tips and insights on crafting the short story. It covers short story basics, including character and scene development, story ideas, and good writing habits and practices.

Workshop 2. Beth Powning: Garden Tour and Publishing Q & A. Join Beth for a tour of her Markhamville property and a discussion about publishing. WFNB will provide transportation to and from Beth's house (returning to the Lion's Den). Tour limited to eight participants. First come, first served, so register early!

4. Pre-register for WordsFall: You can email this form to info@wfnb.ca and pay by PayPal on our website OR you can mail the form to the address show above, with a cheque payable to the Writers' Federation of NB. Unfortunately, due to logistics we cannot accept payment at the door.

Registration form and payment must arrive by email or post by Thursday, November 2, 2017.
