1. Would you like to read at FRIDAY NIGHT's open mic session? Please mark here.  Yes No
Space is limited, so register early. Maximum reading time: six (6) minutes.

2. We'll have tables set up for members who would like to sell their books. Bringing books?  Yes No

3. Mark which SATURDAY MORNING workshop you want to attend (9:30 am–Noon).

- Workshop 1. Researching Historical Fiction with C J Masson. Learn how to find and work with primary sources, capture the 'Spirit of Place' and conduct other research. Put your new skills into practice with hands-on exercises based on events in Canadian history.
- Workshop 2. Making Memories Work for You with Sandra Phinney. If you'd like to write vignettes for your family, essays, or a book focused on memoir, this workshop is for you! Topics include writing memoir as postcard stories (submit to contests), as first-person essay for pay (where/how submit), and as long-form narrative (create game plan).

4. Mark which SATURDAY AFTERNOON workshop you want to attend (1:30–4 pm).

- Workshop 3. Representing Yourself in Poetry with Kayla Geitzler. This interactive workshop for writers at all levels shows how your greatest asset is your unique voice, experiences and way of seeing the world. Topics include what lies behind a poem, how to give it breath and what helps it to speak.
- Workshop 4. Writing and Collage with Lynn Davies. Making a collage can generate ideas and help solve writing difficulties. It can clarify setting, character and imagery. Come ready to write, cut and paste. We also discuss the energy of dissimilar things, writer's block and the writing life.

4. Pre-register (we cannot accept payment at the door). Either email this form to info@wfnb.ca and pay by PayPal on our website OR mail this form and a cheque to the address above. Make cheque payable to Writers' Federation of NB.

Registration form and payment must arrive by email or post by Thursday, November 1, 2018.
